

SORRY WE MISSED YOU

It is necessary for us to enter your property to perform surveying & mapping procedures.

Florida Statute Chapter 472.029

Brief explanation:

472.029 Authorization to enter lands of third parties; conditions.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Surveyors and mappers or their subordinates may go on, over, and upon the lands of others when necessary to make surveys and maps or locate or set monuments, and, in so doing, may carry with them their agents and employees necessary for that purpose. Entry under the right granted by this subsection does not constitute trespass, and surveyors and mappers and their duly authorized agents or employees so entering are not liable to arrest or to a civil action by reason of such entry; however, this subsection does not give authority to registrants, subordinates, agents, or employees to destroy, injure, damage, or move any physical improvements on lands of another without the written permission of the landowner.

This process primarily involves:

- Your Property
- Neighboring Property
